

+ The congress has been rescheduled

INVESTMENT IN SUSTAINABLE FORESTRY

Showcasing the financial needs of the forestry sector and the visions of NGOs and the financial sector

To inspire and empower the financial sector to increase sustainable forestry investment

NEW DATE!

November 4, 2010

Location

Da Vinci Theatre AFAS,
Leusden, Philipsstraat 9,
the Netherlands

Chairman

Giuseppe van der Helm

Entrance fee

€ 125 per person

Register now!

FORM  International

PROGRAMME

9.00h

Reception to the congress

9.30h

Welcome and opening

Cherie Tan (WWF Forest Finance)

Business cases: the financial needs

The risks, returns and business opportunities of sustainable forest management companies

- Luis Foianini (La Chonta, Bolivia)
- Wim Ellenbroek (The Borneo Initiative)
- Paul Hol (FORM Ghana)
- Héctor Vidaurre (Rain Forest Management Products, Peru)
- African forest management company

Market perspectives

Panel discussion with retailers, house associations and construction companies on the market perspectives for sustainable timber in Europe

- Willem Ferwerda (IUCN - International Union for the Conservation of Nature)
- André de Boer (ETTF - European Timber Trade Federation)
- Peter Koene (Maxeda DIY Group)
- Niels Ruyter (Dutch Construction and Infrastructure Federation)

12.00h

Lunch

13.00h

Opportunities of sustainable forestry investment

Julia Levashova (Nyenrode Business Universiteit)

Business cases: the financial investors

The various strategies and mechanisms for investment in sustainable forestry

- Noemí Pérez (FAST – Finance Alliance for Sustainable Trade)
- Rik Plomp (PGGM Investments)
- Ana Yang (IFC - International Finance Corporation)
- Angelique Custers (Rabobank International)
- Maree Candish (New Forests Asia)
- Denis Slieker (Face the Future)

The next step

Bart van der Linden (FSC the Netherlands)

15.45h

Closing and drinks

powered by

